KNOCK

More than 6,000 people from across Ireland are expected to gather at Knock Shrine today Sunday 29th of April to pray for the protection of the right to life of the unborn. Bishop Alphonsus Cullinan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, will celebrate Mass and preach the homily in Knock Basilica at 3.00pm. The pilgrimage to Knock on 29 April is organised by the national Apostolate of Eucharistic Adoration, on the theme 'The Family of Eucharistic Adoration. Eucharistic Adoration committees from 23 dioceses will be in attendance, joined by members from hundreds of parish committees across Ireland.

Speaking ahead of the event Bishop Cullinan said, 'In many ways Knock is the spiritual centre of Ireland. It is fitting that people from all over the country will gather there before the referendum on 25 May on whether or not to remove the 8th Amendment from our constitution. We will gather in Knock to pray to our heavenly Mother for future mothers and their unborn children in our country. Those who are attending already commit to adoring the Lord Jesus day after day and week after week in parishes throughout our land. They now wish to gather around Mary to implore the All Powerful to scatter the darkness and confusion in so many minds which are unable to see the humanity of the unborn and their right to life which is the most basic of all rights.' Priests, religious and lay people are invited to join at Knock and parish committees will be arranging transport on the day. At 1.20pm, members of the national committee of the Apostolate of Eucharistic Adoration, Bartle O Curraoin and John Howard will welcome all in attendance before a talk on 'Adoration – For all the Family' at 1.30pm.

Mass will be celebrated in Knock Basilica at 3.00pm by Bishop Alphonsus Cullinan and joining clergy. Music at the Mass will be performed the Cathedral Choir from Waterford and Lismore. Following the Mass a Eucharistic Procession will be lead from the Basilica, finishing in the Apparition Chapel for Benediction with a closing word from Brendan Cleary, a member of our National Apostolate. Those attending are invited to bring along county flags and Apostolate banners to make the procession as colourful and meaningful as possible. Children are also welcome and a parallel programme will be facilitated on the day by the Children of the Eucharist team, led by Antoinette Moynihan. Week 5!

Hi Mammy!
We're now connected by our umbilical cord. There is a lot going on inside and outside my tiny body. My brain has divided into distinct segments and my nervous system, spine, lungs and liver have started to form. I have tiny buds that will one day be my arms and legs. If you could see me you'd see the beginnings of my nose, eyes and ears. I hope I get your good looks!

Over the coming weeks we will be following the development of Baby Bump based on pregnancy milestones from conception to 12 weeks.

"THE CATHOLIC CHURCH has never taught that the life of the child in the womb should be preferred to that of the mother. A doctor may give treatment that is necessary to either mother or child without deliberately intending harm to the other. Abortion is the deliberate medical intervention to end the life of an unborn child. There is a danger that people may confuse abortion with necessary medical intervention. Under the Eighth Amendment, no life-saving treatment is ever, or legally can ever, be denied to an expectant mother."
