Thank You: The wife and family of the late Liam Balfe, Killina, Carbury would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to all who supported and sympathised with them on their recent sad loss. Sincere thanks to Fr. John Fitzpatrick P.P and Fr. Alphonsus Murphy P.E. and everyone who called to the house, attended the funeral, sent mass cards and floral tributes. Thanks to the local businesses, local associations and to all our neighbours and friends for their help and support; to Carbury GAA for the Guard of Honour, to Carbury Carers for their Kindness; John Glennon Funeral Director; the church choir for the beautiful music and St. Brigid's Hospice, Moore Abbey. It was much appreciated. Please accept this acknowledgement as a token of our deep appreciation. Mass will be offered for your intentions.

The Paschal Candle: This year, the Pascal candle will speak to me about who I and who I am called to be and how I find my place in the Ireland that is emerging today. Maybe the society that is evolving does not value my Christian belief, but this Candle reminds me that I am still called to give my life in love for others, I am still called to empty myself for others, until the moment my life is extinguished. With its nails it is a wounded candle, and it reminds me that I too am wounded, that I am flawed, that I am in need of God's mercy, so that there is no place in my life for arrogance or any lack of humility, but I can be a wounded healer in society, bringing the healing of God's merciful love to others.

It reminds me that now, this time, this year, 2016, is the time to live the love of Christ - there is no better time my friends, to live the transforming love of Jesus Christ. It reminds me that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is a message for all time, especially now. And every time I see this candle burn during the Easter Season, and for every baptism and for every funeral during the year, may it remind me of the light that I carry - the light of Christ who is risen from the dead - and my life can witness today to the hope that the light offers. This candle burns for all of us, calling us all to an Easter way of being - a way of thinking, living, acting, speaking that gives witness to the transforming love of Jesus Christ.

LEARNING ABOUT THE MASS WITH KATH AND QUMEN

THE PRIEST GIVES THANKS TO GOD FOR OUR GIFTS

The priest stands behind the altar and holds up the paten with the bread on it and says a prayer of blessing to God. The priest then pours the wine into the chalice. The chalice is a special cup which is shaped like a wine glass. It may be made of gold and silver.

He pours a drop of water into the wine. He then holds up the chalice and says a prayer of blessing to God again. The priest says a prayer over the gifts, which is different at every Mass. In many churches people will stand at this point. This shows us that the preparation of the gifts is over and we are now going to pray the Eucharistic Prayer.

Climate Change and Me Conference takes place in the Rest & Care Centre, Knock Shrine. It is a one-day conference on climate change and takes place on Saturday April 30th and will present the latest science of climate change in Ireland and around the world. The event has been organised in response to Pope Francis' ground-breaking document, Laudato Si'. Registration costs €10. For bookings, email: faithrenewal@knockshrine.ie or telephone: (094) 9388100. All are welcome to attend this event.
