Kilshanroe Cemetery Committee wish to thank all those who generously contributed to the collection on Sunday last. The amount collected was €1474 minus €300 towards the Parish collection. This is greatly appreciated and will be used towards the upkeep of the cemetery. The committee also sincerely thank the caretaker who maintained the cemetery in excellent condition throughout the year.

Annual Parish Pilgrimage to Knock will take place on Tuesday the 9th of August. In La Salette, Lourdes, Fatima, Guadalupe, Medjugorje, (Medjugorje is still undergoing scrutiny by Rome) Our Lady spoke to the visionaries. But in Knock Our Lady never spoke except by her presence. There was great economic hardship in Ireland so coming to the Irish people at that time meant more than a thousand words. Knock is the Confessional Capital of Ireland and is visited by thousands of people every year. Knock is to Ireland what Medjugorje is to the World. All of the shrines of Our Lady have a major impact on people's lives. If you wish to travel to Knock, please hand your name into or call the Parish Office on 9553355. Alternatively please call to the sacristy in either Kilshanroe or Derrinturn.

Cemetery Rosaries for 2016 will take place in Templedoath on Monday 25th July at 7.30pm, Dunfierth on Tuesday 26th July at 7.30pm. Kilpatrick on Wednesday 27th July at 7.30pm and in Arckill on Thursday 28th July at 7.30pm.

Carbury GFC are honoured to announce An Evening of Celebration where GAA President, Aogán Ó Feargháil, will officially launch “The Frank Burke Story” by Gerry Cummins and Éanna De Búrca at the Club’s grounds on Thursday 21st of July next at 7pm. Carbury native Frank Burke is one of the most decorated players in the history of the GAA. On completion of his primary education at Derrinturn N.S., Frank moved to St. Enda’s Rathfarnham and later to UCD where he distinguished himself as a scholar and a sportsman. Frank was in the GPO during the 1916 Easter Rising and was afterwards interned at Frongoch in Wales. He later succeeded Padraig Pearse as headmaster of St. Enda’s. He played for Dublin against Tipperary on Bloody Sunday when his immediate opponent, Michael Hogan, was fatally shot. The evening’s entertainment will include two football games at 5.30pm: Under 14 – Carbury v Balyna and at 8pm, Senior – Carbury v Johnstownbridge. They are delighted to have the Sam Maguire Cup and the Dermot Bourke Cup on display in the Clubhouse for the evening. They will be joined on the evening by the book’s authors, Carbury man Gerry Cummins and Éanna De Búrca, son of Frank. Well known GAA journalist Eugene McGee has agreed to edit a special commemorative programme for the event and this will feature many articles of sporting and historical interest. All are welcome to join us for what promises to be a very special occasion for their Club. Admission is free.
