Next Week's Gospel: Luke 14:25-33.

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (28/08/16)

Humility is needed for those who choose to serve. Recognize your gifts and offer them in humble service.

(Luke 14:1, 7-14)

Two seminarians from Kildare & Leighlin started in Maynooth this week and we will also have a seminarian in Rome from the end of the month. The following prayer will be said at masses this weekend:

Lord Jesus, we ask your special blessing on all our new seminarians beginning their preparation for the priesthood today, their families and friends who have accompanied them.

We pray that they will grow in faith, hope and charity.

May their hearts overflow with your compassion, understanding and generosity, and may their desire to serve you inspire others to answer your call.

Lord, give our new seminarians the grace to follow you more perfectly. When they are discouraged or lonely, fill them with your peace and courage. Jesus, gentle Shepard, meek and humble of heart, make the hearts of all our new seminarians like yours.

Lord bless the families and friends of our new seminarians and all who encourage, inspire and guide them in responding to your call to be a priest. Amen

Communion Calls in the Parish are Wednesday 31st of August - Rathmore, Ticknevin, Ballyhagen, High Road Gap, Longridge, Haggard, Ballyshannon, Parsonstown, Grace's Park and Killina. Should anyone wish to have a Priest call to their home please contact the Parish Office on 046 9553355 or carburyparish@gmail.com

World Missions Ireland: Activities for this year include the National Day of Prayer for Children which takes place on Friday the 14th of October and Mission Sunday which takes place on Sunday the 23rd of October. The theme for Mission Sunday this year is “Every Christian is a Missionary”. Since this year is also the Jubilee Year of Mercy, we may add “Every Christian is a Missionary of Mercy” for the service of mercy is central to the church’s missionary outreach. Pope Francis says “We need Christians who make God’s mercy and tenderness to every creature visible to people today”. Please help us at World Missions Ireland to share the gift of faith through prayer and whatever financial assistance you can, so that we in the Irish Church are able to offer to the growth of the young Churches.

World Association Kickboxing Organisation: Best of luck to all competitors from Hurricane Martial Arts who will take part in the event from the 28th of August to the 4th of September in the Citywest Hotel in Dublin.

Carbury Parish Website: The new website for Carbury Parish will be complete over the coming week and running online on the internet for next weekend. The purpose of the website is to have a place where people in our Parish can access any information they require and make it easier for those abroad to keep in touch with what is happening in our Parish. Information contained on the website includes a history of our Parish, information on the four schools in the Parish, safeguarding information, information on communion, confirmation, weddings and confessions and all other sacraments. The Newsletter can also be viewed online and an archive of past Newsletters is available for viewing also. There is also a section with contact information for community and Parish groups and if there are any groups that wish to be included on our website please let us know. There is also a section where Mass readings are available, so everybody can access the readings and Gospel for each day of the week. The Carbury Parish website address is www.carburyparish.ie and we encourage people to use this excellent resource for our Parish. The Parish office can be contacted as usual on 046 9553355 or carburyparish@gmail.com
