The Pattern of Carbury Parish Field Day 2017

FIELD DAY

Carbury G.A.A was the venue for this years field day. It was a venture that brought in €6,600 + so it was a great boost to our fundraising efforts, which are now focused on Kilshanroe church. The generosity of all concerned must be acknowledged. First of all the organising committee who put in long and hard hours for what is now a major event in the life of our Parish. Secondly, thanks is due to those who sponsored us in any way however large or small. Thirdly, we thank all who attended and spent their money on the various stalls. On the day many turned up to help out in transporting books and prizes and bric a brac from the church to the G.A.A. Stalls had to be set up and manned and later dismantled and a big clean up effort followed.

Thanks to the G.A.A who facilitated us in spite of the game with Celbridge which had been flagged to the County Board but no change was possible. The stewarding and parking arrangements were excellent. God bless the effort of all and guide us in the days ahead in our many new ventures and undertakings. Thanks to one and all concerned. It is much appreciated.

Fr. John Fitzpatrick P.P.
