Next Week's Gospel Mt 13 44-52

Diocesan Prayer for those on pilgrimage to Lourdes July 16th to 21st.

*O'God, who brought Abraham, our Father in faith, safely through the desert,
We ask you in these days to watch over the many people from our diocese. Journeying together as pilgrims to Lourdes.*

Bless each one of them that they may come to share in the praise of Mary, and proclaim that you, indeed, do great things for us. Keep them safe from all harm. Keep them safe in body and spirit. Be with them on each step of their pilgrim journey, And guide them safely home by your loving hand. We hold the people of Kildare and Leighlin in our prayer. May our parishes be places where we discover and share the love of Christ, May our families be Christian homes of love, generosity and forgiveness, May our young people seek your truth, May all who are poor, weak or wounded by life's hurts, Know your justice, healing and light.

Sin é ár nguí tré Críost ár dTiarna. Amen

*Brigid of Kildare, pray for us,
St Conleth of Old Connell, pray for us,
St Lazerine of Leighlin, pray for us,
Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us.*

Feast Day of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, July 16th

Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as “Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.”

They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honour of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. For centuries, the Carmelites have seen themselves as specially related to Mary. Their great saints and theologians have promoted devotion to her and often championed the mystery of her Immaculate Conception.

Saint Teresa of Avila called Carmel “the Order of the Virgin.” Saint John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison. Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus believed that Mary cured her from illness. On her First Communion day, Thérèse dedicated her life to Mary. During the last days of her life she frequently spoke of Mary.

There is a tradition that Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock, a leader of the Carmelites, and gave him a scapular, telling him to promote devotion to it. The scapular is a modified version of Mary’s own garment. It symbolizes her special protection and calls the wearers to consecrate themselves to her in a special way. The scapular reminds us of the gospel call to prayer and penance—a call that Mary models in a splendid way.

Reflection

The Carmelites were known from early on as “Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.” The title suggests that they saw Mary not only as “mother,” but also as “sister.” The word sister is a reminder that Mary is very close to us. She is the daughter of God and therefore can help us be authentic daughters and sons of God. She also can help us grow in appreciation of being sisters and brothers to one another. She leads us to a new realization that all human beings belong to the family of God. When such a conviction grows, there is hope that the human race can find its way to peace.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mount Carmel

O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendour of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me this my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother.

O Holy Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart, to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power.

O, show me herein you are my Mother, O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (3 times)

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3 times)
