Kilshanroe Church Renovation: Following the recent tender process, a contractor has now been selected to carry out the proposed renovation of the Holy Family Church in Kilshanroe. Work will commence in early August and the church will be closed from Monday 30th July. During construction, Masses will be held in Kilshanroe National School at the normal times. All going well, the church will reopen in early December, please God. If any parishioner would like one of the old church pews, please contact the Parish Office for further details (046 9553355). I would like to take this opportunity to thank you most sincerely for your ongoing support and prayers. Fr. Fitzpatrick P.P.

Field Day: A large crowd came to the field day. The Pattern of Carbury is now a moveable feast. This year it was held on the 15th of July, which is St Swithin's Day. You know what they say, if it rains on St Swithin's Day it will rain for another 40 days. Well it did rain. When we came out after 8am Mass it was coming down and stayed at it all day. It was a happy sight for the farming community, perhaps not so much for the Field Day Committee or the ice cream man or the scouts' burger tent or the bouncy castles.

We were lucky to have the use of the G.A.A premises. It ensured the patrons could walk around without the use of an umbrella! All the stalls did a brisk trade including the wheel of fortune – fortunate for some and not so fortunate for others. A massive amount of work went into the day. There was a huge clean up afterwards and the hall was left spotless. Thanks to all who contributed in any way with time, effort or money. The total raised was €6,495. It will help with the renovation of Kilshanroe church due to start the first week in August. Your efforts are much appreciated. God bless everyone. Fr John Fitzpatrick P.P.

Carbury First Responders are delighted to have finally erected a defibulator on the wall of the turn inn pub in Derrinturn. This is a wonderful achievement from all involved and a very special thanks needs to go firstly to Pat Gill for allowing us to use the wall for the defibulator and secondly Colm Carberry and Philip Brady BAC electrical need a special thanks also as they installed the defibulator free of charge. Our funding is low now as a result of this and so we will be fundraising in the future and we ask if anyone would like to donate to contact the parish office or any of the defibulator committee.

In his homily for Sunday's televised Aifreann na Clainne, the Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin warned that "The pursuit of the material is miles away from Gospel values." In 40 days' time Pope Francis will arrive in Ireland for the closing days of the World Meeting of Families and the event "has already exceeded all records" Bishop Denis Nulty said in his homily for the RTE broadcast Mass on Sunday. The Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin explained that Aifreann na Clainne is a Mass to celebrate family, to welcome Pope Francis and to welcome the visiting delegations who will arrive in just over a month's time. Some 15,000 overseas pilgrims from 114 countries will spend time in Ireland attending WMOF2018 events at the RDS, as well as the Festival of Families in Croke Park and the Closing Mass celebrated by Pope Francis in the Phoenix Park. Sunday's Mass in the RTE studios in Donnybrook brought together representatives of four choirs: St Michael's Folk Choir, Portarlinton; the Clonaslee Church Choir; the Clonaghadoo Church Choir; and a choir from the Archdiocese of Dublin – In Cantorum Choir from Athy.

The music for Aifreann na Clainne was composed by Tom Conroy from the parish of Portarlinton in the Diocese of Kildare & Leighlin. The composer said the theme for the Mass was that "all the singers are joined together as a 'Family of Choirs' by their love of music and of sharing their faith through music". Speaking on the theme "the price of everything and the value of nothing", Bishop Nulty reminded viewers that there is no cost for the tickets to see Pope Francis in Knock and the Phoenix Park, but that the tickets held a "deep value". Referring to the ordination season, Dr Nulty said that while a priestly ordination no longer tends to make front-page news, it remains a significant milestone in a young man's life and in the local parish's story. However, referring to the Gospel of the day, he acknowledged that some priests today find the going out in pairs challenging, as there are fewer priests to team up with. "It is so often much more convenient to do things alone, to plough a solitary furrow in a field, and very much to live on one's own," he said. But he warned that "loneliness can be buried in the pursuit of the material and that is a challenge for the priesthood of 2018.

The pursuit of the material is miles away from gospel values; companionship is sacrificed at the altar of personal comfort." Returning to the World Meeting of Families, the Bishop of Kildare & Leighlin said, "Imagine if all who come to the World Meeting next month, all who attend the Papal events around that global gathering of faith, were truly present to our Church, to our faith communities, what a vibrant Sunday celebration we would have in each and every parish!" He prayed that all who watched the Mass "as family, as chlann, as pobal will be truly present for the World Meeting, and that you as parish will be enlivened by what you experience". Meanwhile, with less than six weeks to go to the World Meeting of Families, which takes place in Dublin from 21 to 26 August, organisers are appealing for one-day volunteers to help out at the Papal Mass in the Phoenix Park as stewards and as Holy Communion Ministers.

Carbury Parish Annual Pilgrimage to Knock will take place next week, Sunday the 29th of July. In La Salette, Lourdes, Fatima, Guadalupe, Medjugorje, (Medjugorje is still undergoing scrutiny by Rome) Our Lady spoke to the visionaries. But in Knock Our Lady never spoke except by her presence. There was great economic hardship in Ireland so coming to the Irish people at that time meant more than a thousand words. Knock is the Confessional Capital of Ireland and is visited by thousands of people every year. Knock is to Ireland what Medjugorje is to the World. All of the shrines of Our Lady have a major impact on people's lives. If you wish to travel to Knock, please hand your name into or call the Parish Office on 046 9553355, or via email carbureparish@gmail.com by Wednesday the 25th of July at 1pm. Leaving Derrinturn Church at 8am on the morning and will stop for dinner on the way back.

World Meeting of Families – Carbury Parish: A bus for the Popes Mass on the 26th of August will depart from Derrinturn church on the morning of the 26th. There are no further seats available on the bus and there are no further tickets available for this event, however if you wish to travel and haven't booked already there is a waiting list and if a seat comes up on the bus we can give you a call. You can call the Parish office on 046 9553355 to be put on the waiting list.

Eucharistic Minister Volunteering: WMOF are seeking the generous help of around 4,000 ministers of Holy Communion to volunteer for one day to be Christ's disciples helping to give the Bread of Life to the people at this historic Papal Mass. This is open to any of those who are already trained and assisting with the distribution of Holy Communion in their own parishes. We are looking for the help of lay people, priests, deacons and religious Ministers of Holy Communion. Those volunteering need to be already trained and functioning ministers of Holy Communion in your own parish community. You will need to be steady on your feet. Although there will be some plastic tracking laid down, much of the distribution will be done in the grassy corrals of the Phoenix Park Papal Mass site. You will need to be garda vetted for this event, [If you are already Garda vetted for WMOF2018, that suffices.] You will need to be in the Phoenix Park by 10:30AM on SUNDAY 26th August so as to be walked through how and where you will minister. It may not be possible for you to be assigned to minister in the place where your family or fellow parishioners are situated, but we hope this won't put you off generously stepping up to help with this important task. And we will do our best to keep parish groups working together. For more information email communionteam@worldmeeting2018.ie or 01 567 6800.
