St. Patrick's Missionary Society, better known as the Kiltegan Fathers, was founded on St. Patrick's Day 1932, by Fr. Patrick Whitney, a priest from the Diocese of Ardagh and Clonmacnois. Since then, Kiltegan priests, together with Volunteer priests and lay people from different Irish Dioceses, including Kildare and Leighlin, have worked firstly in Nigeria, and later in Kenya, Central and South Africa, Brazil and the West Indies.

Today, there are 281 Kiltegan priests of whom 28 are African. We have 58 students in Africa preparing for the priesthood. That seed sown by the Irish church has grown in suprising ways.

Through this visit, we wish to recall how missionary work is central to our faith and thank you for your generous support in the past. The Mission Appeal which Father David Walsh and Father Brendan Payne will co-ordinate asks for your continued support for the Society's missionary works, through enrolling in Mission Circle, subscribing to "Africa" magazine or supporting other initiatives.

The Appeal will take place in our parish on the weekend of March 2/3 and 9/10

I dream of a...a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything, so that the Church's ways of doing things...can be suitably channelled for the evangelization of today's world.

Pope Francis.
