Celebrating the Permanent Diaconate

Our diocese has been blessed by the reintroduction of the Permanent Diaconate in 2013. John Dunleavy, Gary Moore, David O’Flaherty, Fergal O’Neill, Joe O’Rourke, Pat Roche and Jim Stowe were ordained in a ceremony in the Cathedral on October 13th, 2013. Paul Wyer, already ordained for the Diocese of Northampton moved to Kildare & Leighlin earlier the same year. The contribution of these eight men to the life of their parish and the diocese is deeply appreciated. Permanent deacons are to be found ministering in several dioceses around Ireland today.

2020 is another special year in the story of the Permanent Diaconate in our diocese as we see the ordination of three further Permanent Deacons. Liturgy in the context of Covid-19 is very restrictive and very different. Because of this I have opted to ordain each of the men in the local parish, this will help with the limited numbers free to gather in our churches at this time as well as spreading the message of the Permanent Diaconate to the wider diocesan family, with many following the ceremonies on respective webcams.

The three candidates due for ordination in the coming weeks are:

Vincent Crowley – Holy Rosary Church, Tullow, Sunday 4th October at 3pm

Liam Dunne – Cathedral of the Assumption, Carlow, Sunday 11th October at 3pm

Eugene Keyes – St. Peter & Paul’s Church, Portlaoise, Sunday 25th October at 3pm

I ask all in the diocese to remember the men, their wives and families in your prayers over the coming weeks.
