Christmas Masses

The Government has made an allowance of only 50 people into the Church for each of our Masses. This is for the safety of all of us who live in unprecedented times.

Maybe just remember our forefathers who stood at Mass Rocks hundreds of years ago under a different forum of oppression so that we could have the faith today.

We can honour the faith in different ways.

1. We expect that Christmas Eve Masses, Derrinturn 9pm and Kilshanroe 9pm and Christmas Day Masses, Derrinturn 8am and 11am and Kilshanroe 11am. will be attended by those who have been at Mass during the four weeks of Advent leading up to Christmas, plus a few extra will fit into the Church until we reach 50. The Christmas Eve Mass at 6pm will be first come first served up to 50.

2. Light a candle in your home and watch and listen in with your family on the Parish Webcam. This is how the early Church began in people's homes.

3. Stand at the back door or front door of the church suitably distanced and listen to the outside speaker.

4. Sit in your car and watch the Mass on Webcam, or listen to the speakers. You can park your car in the Carpark or in the graveyard or nearby.

5. Pick any Mass between December 25th (Christmas Day) and January 6th (Little Christmas) and attend a Mass on your own or with your Family. Mass times are listed in the Newsletter.

6. Have a happy and a Holy Christmas. We are doing this as a Parish. Together we can get through it. God understands how we are. Let us support one another. Health and safety is a priority, celebration is too.

If you are listening or watching in from your home or from your car outside the Church, know that you are part of the Parish Family watching and praying just like the Angels and Shepherds on the first Christmas Day.

7. Please support your local clergy who are there for you always, as you for them.

8. Please do not congregate at the Crib after Mass or outside the Church. Come for a visit to the Crib later during any of the days of Christmas.

Thank You

Fr. John Fitzpatrick

When entering the Church please enter by the front door and leave by the side doors to ensure no crossing over. Thanks for your cooperation.

Christmas Station Masses
