Keeping the Easter Octave in the Home: The Easter season lasts for 50 days with the Feast of Pentecost. The first eight days, taking us to the Second Sunday of Easter, is referred to as the Easter Octave. You might like to mark these days by lighting a candle each night and praying the Prayer for Easter Sunday.

Carbury GAA Lotto took place on Tuesday the 6th of April. The Lotto numbers drawn were 17, 24, 26, 28, and the bonus ball was 11. There were 2 winners of the match 3, who each won €100. Next week's draw takes place Monday the 12th of April. Next week's Jackpot is €8,800.

Carbury Men's Shed: I'm trying to gauge interest in setting up a Men's Shed in the village. A "men's shed" is a community based project, where men can come together to learn, share skills and make long-lasting friendships together. Most sheds engage in activities such as woodwork, gardening, carpentry and community work. However, there are more special interests sheds that focus on things like music, fishing and restoration work."

I think it would be a fantastic addition to the village to have an active Men's Shed were retired/semi-retired men could come together to share skills, make new friends and put those valuable skills to good use in the community.

If you are interested in getting involved please get in touch with Paul Mahon Tel: 087 1778706 Email: paulmahonpbp@gmail.com or on the Carbury Community Facebook page.

Divine Mercy Sunday: During his revelations to St. Faustina, our Lord requested a number of times that a feast day be dedicated to Divine Mercy and celebrated annually on the first Sunday after Easter. Furthermore, he instructed her to have an image created of his Divine Mercy in the way that he appeared to her.

Here is what he told her: Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary, No. 300)

I want the image solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. (Diary, No. 341)

This Feast emerged from the very depths of my mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of my tender mercies. (Diary, No. 420) The Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated in Catholic churches throughout the world on the first Sunday after Easter, known as Divine Mercy Sunday. On that day, the amazing image of Divine Mercy is venerated in most, if not all, of the churches. The readings for the day relate the institution of the Sacrament of Penance and, along with it, the Tribunal of the Divine Mercy. Our Lord's mercy is available to us throughout the year, and it's good for us to meditate on the message and meaning of Divine Mercy on a daily basis. In honor of this magnificent feast, I've compiled six of my favorite quotes from St. Faustina's Diary: Divine Mercy in My Soul.

Any one of them is enough for a lengthy meditation because they are so rich in grace and meaning. I hope that you can spend some time considering the beauty and impact of the gift of Divine Mercy that our Lord has given us!

"Great love can change small things into great ones, and it is only love which lends value to our actions. And the purer our love becomes, the less there will be within us for the flames of suffering to feed upon, and the suffering will cease to be a suffering for us; it will become a delight! By the grace of God, I have received such a disposition of heart that I am never so happy as when I suffer for Jesus, whom I love with every beat of my heart." (No. 303)

"A soul does not benefit as it should from the sacrament of confession if it is not humble. Pride keeps it in darkness. The soul neither knows how, nor is it willing, to probe with precision the depths of its own misery. It puts on a mask and avoids everything that might bring it recovery." (No. 113)

"When I see that the burden is beyond my strength, I do not consider or analyze it or probe into it, but I run like a child to the Heart of Jesus and say only one word to Him: "You can do all things." And then I keep silent, because I know that Jesus Himself will intervene in the matter, and as for me, instead of tormenting myself, I use that time to love Him." (No. 1033)

"I am love and Mercy Itself. There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted – it increases. The soul that trusts in My mercy is most fortunate, because I Myself take care of it." (No. 1273)

"The Lord said to me, 'The loss of each soul plunges Me into mortal sadness. You always console Me when you pray for sinners. The prayer most pleasing to Me is prayer for the conversion of sinners. Know, My daughter, that this prayer is always heard and answered.'" (No. 1397)

"All grace flows from mercy, and the last hour abounds with mercy for us. Let no one doubt concerning the goodness of God; even if a person's sins were as dark as night, God's mercy is stronger than our misery. One thing alone is necessary; that the sinner set ajar the door of his heart, be it ever so little, to let in a ray of God's merciful grace, and then God will do the rest." (No. 1507)
