The nicest place to be is in someone's thoughts,

Then when darkness falls upon us and I fear to be alone; Take my hand O Blessed Mother, Once again and lead me home.

Carbury Men's Shed: I'm trying to gauge interest in setting up a Men's Shed in the village. A "men's shed" is a community based project, where men can come together to learn, share skills and make long-lasting friendships together. Most sheds engage in activities such as woodwork, gardening, carpentry and community work. However, there are more special interests sheds that focus on things like music, fishing and restoration work."

I think it would be a fantastic addition to the village to have an active Men's Shed where retired/semi-retired men could come together to share skills, make new friends and put those valuable skills to good use in the community.

If you are interested in getting involved please get in touch with Paul Mahon Tel: 087 1778706 Email: paulmahonpbp@gmail.com or on the Carbury Community Facebook page.

Easter Water for the Home – A message from Bishop Denis

Up to March of 2020, people invariably blessed themselves with holy water as they entered a church. This gesture reminds us of and stirs up the waters of our baptism. Alas, this is one of the many things that Covid has taken from us.

Priests have asked me about the possibility of making Easter water available for use in the home. While we are still in the midst of the Easter season, a season which has baptism at its heart, I would encourage you to continue this popular and worthwhile tradition. A number of parishes are already doing so in this Eastertide. At this time we need to continue to support the domestic church in any way we can and the presence of holy water in the home can be a powerful domestic reminder of our baptism. This blessed water can be placed in a font by the door of the home or it might be used in a blessing of the home and household. So while, for the moment, we cannot bless ourselves with holy water in a church, holy water can have a place in the domestic Church.

The text found in the Missal on p 1354 can be used to bless water, using the option for during Easter Time. [If there is no congregation present, you might omit the line in the introduction on page 1353 that says: ‘which will be sprinkled on us’]

Parishes may choose to distribute water in small, individual bottles or to facilitate water containers from the home being filled from a large vessel inside or outside the church. In either case, parishes will need to be mindful of Covid safety, for example making hand sanitizers/wipes available if taps have to be turned on or off.

Living ‘Laudato Sí’ ‘Laudato Sí’ is Pope Francis’ second encyclical subtitled ‘On Care for our Common Home’. It ponders the deep relationship between humanity and creation and how the flourishing of human beings is intimately connected with our understanding and treatment of nature. It is a must read for all. It can be downloaded free of charge on:

http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/encyclicals/documents/papa-francesco_20150524_enciclica-laudato-si.html

This week try to reconnect with nature. Go for a walk, spend a few minutes in your garden or even look out through the window. All creation is a reflection of God’s love, and so this week we could try to be more aware of nature. Contemplation of creation allows us to discover in each thing a teaching which God wishes to hand on to us, since “for the believer, to contemplate creation is to hear a message, to listen to a paradoxical and silent voice”. (Laudato Sí 85)
