Annie Keegan, 100th Birthday Acknowledgement: Annie recently celebrated her milestone 100th Birthday with morning Mass and a wonderful get together, and party at her home at Kilkeaskin, we are all so proud of her. Many people contributed to the special occasion and the goodwill extended to her was a testament to her popularity within the great Carbury Community. I would like to thank everybody who attended, sent messages, and lovely gifts, and those who simply thought of her on this very special day. Special thanks however are extended to Fr. John Fitzpatrick P.P, Fr. Alfie Murphy, the members of Leixlip Garda Síochána community policing, and even members of the Garda Band who were on hand to deliver a tune or two. Sincere thanks to Chairman Richard Cully and all at Carbury GAA who supplied seating/tables etc. to Robert Bergin for a wonderful array of food and cakes, teas, coffees, etc, also thanks to Neighbours Philip and Regina Dempsey for allocating some parking space, to Elaine McCrossan for the Photography and to Gary Gorman for the tent hire, also a huge word of thanks to long time friend and neighbour Bernie Pender who was on hand to keep everyone on their toes and her great local team, Ann Duffy, Catriona Lott, Jim Wakely, June Wakely, Yvonne Kavanagh, Margaret Kelly, Mary Dunne, and Johnny Dunne. It was great to see so many great friends and relations to celebrate Annie's big day, especially in the throes of a global pandemic. My sincerest thanks to you all. Kindest Regards Pat Brady
