A Prayer from the Trócaire Parish Lenten Resources 2022:

Praise Be to You, Creator of All Things. Come to us, dear Lord, plant the seeds of compassion in our hearts, and grant our leaders wisdom to make the changes we need to see, so that your earth and your people can thrive as you planned. Reach out your loving arms to all your brothers and sisters, and renew our love for you, our planet, and all living creatures. Grant us peace in our hearts, as we remain hopeful for change. Guide us with presence as we continue to commit ourselves to work for climate justice. (Janet Twomey, Trócaire)

Your Parishioners as agents of God's love through their Trócaire Boxes this Lent:

Two years ago, in the Palm Sunday Homily of His Holiness Pope Francis for Lent 2020, he evoked the desolation of Jesus by quoting his words: Eli, Eli, lama sabachtani? My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Matthew 27:46). So it is beyond difficult to grasp that this Palm Sunday two years later, so many around the world still suffer in the tragic human fallout of the Covid pandemic, in the failed crops, floods, and punishing droughts of climate change, in the assault on the innocent in Ukraine. Yet in his Message for lent 2022, this year, we find the hope that lies in action – the hope there is in the perseverance of love. He writes, “each year we are reminded that goodness, together with love, justice and solidarity, are not achieved one and for all, they have to be realised each day.” That just as in 2020, you – all of us, together – are what he called “the real heroes who come to light in these days...those who are giving themselves in order to serve others...who say yes to love without ifs and buts. As Jesus did for us.” For families caught in terrible crises far from the media spotlight, in filling and returning your Trócaire Boxes for Easter week, you are an agent of God's love: and in giving to protect Trócaire's work for families in over twenty countries worldwide, you are ensuring that the light of hope will never die.
