Why study the Catechism? To get a brief authoritative overall statement of the whole of our Catholic Faith. Liturgical or biblical studies do not fully explain the social teaching of the Church, for instance, or help us to understand what exactly the Church is (20 pages in the Catechism.) Based largely on the documents of Vatican II the Catechism of the Catholic Church show faith and reason linked in a wonderful network. Weekly Meetings resume on September 8th at 10-30 am in Prosperous Parish centre. There is no charge and all are welcome.

Knock St Pio of Pietrelcina: The Annual Pilgrimage takes place on Sunday 18th September 2022. Special coaches will leave The Square, Edenderry at 9.15 am sharp. Seats €20. To book Tel: Pat at 086-8447326. Please note: Bus tickets booked must be paid for and collected by Wednesday 14th September. No money will be collected on the morning.

Back to School Blessing

Dear Heavenly Father, for all the children returning to school, send your Holy Spirit as their guide and protector. Keep them free from danger and unnecessary harm. Put our sons and daughters in the right place, at the right time, to receive your grace. Let them learn and grow strong. May the presence of your Spirit fill their hearts. Help us to mature as parents and caregivers. Bless every family, oh Lord. We entrust our children to you, dear God. Since from the beginning, they are yours to keep. In the name of the greatest Son of all, Jesus Christ. Amen.

DPC News: The Diocesan Pastoral Council will meet again in September. These summer months are a good time for all of us, to reflect on how the five themes identified by the DPC link into what has been expressed in our synod synthesis presently among clergy but to be extended to include others. See <https://www.kandle.ie/pastoral/diocesan-pastoral-council/>

Season of Creation 1 September – 4 October: A prayer for the Earth (Martyn Goss, Diocese of Exeter): God our Creator, maker and shaper of all that is, seen and unseen; You are present in the breadth and depth of the whole of creation, and in the processes that make life possible. Yet, we are distracted by the gods of the marketplace. Our lives have become fractured and fragmented. In our brokenness we disturb the Earth's capacity to hold us. Call us back from the brink. Help us to choose love and not fear, to change ourselves and not the planet, to act justly for the sake of the vulnerable, and to make a difference today for the life tomorrow. We make this our prayer in your name, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Amen.

When I go on Pilgrimage, A Pilgrim's Prayer by John M. Haffert: If some things do not happen as they are scheduled, Lord, may I remember that I am a pilgrim not a tourist! If I should get tired and inclined to become short tempered, Lord, may I remember that I am a Pilgrim not a tourist! If my meal in a foreign country may not be to my particular liking, Lord, may I remember that I am a Pilgrim not a tourist! If any delays should occur and I should become anxious, Lord, may I remember that I am a pilgrim not a tourist! If some other pilgrim is making noise so that I cannot hear the guide, Lord, may I remember that I am a pilgrim not a tourist when I ask that person to be a bit more quiet! If I find myself last in line waiting, Lord, May I remember that I am a pilgrim not a tourist! If I should get a chance to help another person, who always seems to be annoying me, Lord, may I remember that I am a pilgrim not a tourist! But Lord, especially let me remember that what I find objectionable in another is really what you oftentimes find objectionable in me and let me remember this and forgive the other, as you are continually forgiving me!

Regional March for Life: Saturday 17th September, join us for the march where we will stand united with pro-life Oireachtas members to demand that our voices are represented and heard. Demanding Pro-Life representation at decision-making table. The Pro-Life movement represents more than 1 in 3 voters on the abortion issue, yet the Government acts as if we don't exist. This undermining of democracy has to end. Dublin: Saturday 17th September at 2.30pm, Marching from St Stephen's Green to Leinster House

National Synthesis of synodal process: The national synthesis – which has now been submitted to the Synod Secretariat in the Vatican as part of the global synodal process announced by Pope Francis for the Church is available to read and download on www.kandle.ie
Dr Nicola Brady, Chair of the Synod Steering Committee, said, “We invite everyone to read the national synthesis and reflect on what we are called to do, as individuals and as a church community, as a result of what we have heard. The issues raised are not new, but the honesty and clarity with which they have been articulated in this process, and the relational approach that has characterised the work to date, offers a strong foundation to build upon. Some of the findings are stark, many of the experiences shared are painful, but there have also been many hopeful and encouraging aspects, notably the importance many people have placed on this process and the skills and experience we will take forward into the subsequent phases of this work. Important questions have been set out for deeper reflection and pastoral action at every level of Church life and there will be many more opportunities for people to get involved and help shape this process.”

SUPPORTING CATHOLIC PARENTS: On Tuesday 6th September, there will be a conference on Zoom hosted by ‘The Hook of Faith’. The topic of the conference will be: ‘Supporting Catholic Parents: Sharing the Catholic Vision of Love and Human Sexuality with Our Children’. The speaker will be Fr Chris Hayden, author of the recently published book: ‘A Better Vision: Understanding and Living the Catholic Vision of Human Sexuality’. The conference will begin at 8pm and conclude at 9pm. All are welcome. All you need to do to take part is send an email to: thehookoffaith@gmail.com This conference is designed to help Catholic parents be the best educators of their children in the areas of faith and morality in our modern culture.
