Acknowledgement: The family of the late Joan O'Rourke who died on January the 3rd 2022 would like to extend a sincere thanks to the people of this parish who were so supportive to our family not only when she passed away but most especially during her long life lived happily in Ballyshannon. Your very thoughtful condolences both personally and online, your mass cards, letters and visits were such a great comfort to us all and also reflect so powerfully on how well you knew and cared for our mother. We thank sincerely all the carers who tended to our mother with such dedication in her own home mentioning very especially Helen Jessop who looked after our mother daily with such kindness and friendship which she valued so much. We thank the priests of this parish, Pat Larkin and all his staff in Larkin's funeral home Edenderry, the wonderful musician Ben Cully, Robert Bergin and all his catering staff for giving our mother such dignified closing ceremonies to her life. We mention Barry and all the staff at Ryan's Pharmacy Derrinturn, Doctor Liz Dunbar with Kate Cully and all the staff in the medical centre in Edenderry whose superb professional assistance, efficiency and kindness were always a great support to our mother. We thank Fathers Fitzpatrick and Murphy whom our mother valued not only as pastors but also as Dear friends. We acknowledge very much Brid and Siobhain and all the caring staff at Craddockstown nursing home for making our mother's precious final weeks so very comfortable. Finally, we thank her very special friends in the community Day Centre and all her wonderful neighbours and lifelong friends in this parish, your support and friendship were the bulwark that brightened her every day and always made her so happy. To you all we will be forever indebted. May she rest in peace.
